Go inside the Legislature, online at www.leg.wa.gov

Here's a great link to start with: “Visiting the Legislature.”

This will take you to a page that tells you how to participate in the process, how laws are made, and visitor information about the state Capitol.

Go to “Committee Meetings” to get the current committee agendas.

Click on “Bill Search” to find information about a bill or topic.

Keeping You in Touch

Government can often seem distant and confusing. Knowing who to contact when you have a problem or concern can make a large difference. As your state representative, I am committed to helping make government more accessible and accountable to you. Below is a quick-access directory of phone numbers and Web addresses so that you may contact your government officials. Post this near your computer, your telephone, or a location where you can easily find it.

Watch or Listen to TVW

TVW (TV Washington), a non-profit public affairs network, broadcasts the Legislature during session on cable TV throughout the state. Its Internet site allows you to listen to legislative presentations, debates and votes as they happen. Call TVW for programming information at (360) 725-3999, or visit TVW's website at www.tvw.org.
